

WILD SWAN THEATER

A PROFESSIONAL THEATER COMPANY

BASED IN ANN ARBOR,

IS SEEKING ACTORS

FOR OUR 27TH SEASON:

Coming to America (Performances in Ann Arbor - October 31 – November 3, 2006 plus some touring performances in November)

A musical journey of 4 children who make their ways to new lives in America.

NOTE: We are in need of two women and two men who can sing well to play multiple characters in the production – we are looking to create a culturally diverse cast

A Christmas Carol (Performances in Ann Arbor - December 13 – 17, 2006)

Our musical version of this holiday classic depicting Scrooge's miraculous transformation the night before Christmas.

NOTE: We are looking for several actors/actresses who sing well—most will play multiple characters in the production- 1 actor will play Scrooge

Along the Tracks (Performances in Ann Arbor - February 13 – 17, 2007)

Celebrate Michigan's participation in the Underground Railroad with this beautifully written play by Kennedy Center award winner Jeff Chastang.

NOTE: We are in need of several African American men to play parts ranging from 13 to 40 years of age, an African American woman who can play a teen-ager, and several actors to round out the cast.

Twelfth Night (Performances in Ann Arbor - May 2 – 6, 2007)

Shakespeare's most delightful comedy of mistaken identity. Adapted for a one-hour production, the play is a wonderful tangle where all is put right at the end.

NOTE: We are in need of one woman to play Viola and several men to play the roles of: Sir Andrew Aguecheek, Sebastian, Malvolio, Duke Orsino, and Sir Toby Belch

Auditions will be held Wed., September 6, 2006 from 10am – 1pm & Thurs., September 7, 2006 from 10am - 1pm at:
